AS HORSE SHOW JUDGE

MONTPELIER, Ida., April 28.—James Devine of Salt Lake made a record of fairness in judging at the horseshow hold in this city, which came to a close Saturday night. Levine advised and cautioned the horsemen in regard to buying stock from the East, and said they should always secure a connected horseman to select their stock. Owing to negligence in this matter many animals have been imported by farmers in Idaho and Utah that are of inferior quality, but the horsemen are getting wiser every day and most of them are from Missouri when they buy horses nowadays.

Tetrazzini Will Reappear After Triumphal Tour of Great American Cities.

LONDON, April 26,-"La Travinta" has been selected for the opening night of the grand opera sesson at Covent Garden, which commences April 20. One reason for this selection is that it affords Mmc. Republican conventions will be held in Colorado, Pennsylvania, Vermont, West Virginia, Maine and Maryland. Democratic conventions will be held in Connecticut and Texas. The Democratic State convention in Connecticut will be held Tuesday and Wednes day in New Haven. tI is an open ques tion whether 'the delegates shall be instructed whom to favor for the Presi-dential nomination. Most of the Bryan strength will be in the city delegations, and will rally around the New Haven county delegates under the leadership of Alexander Troup, who is one of Mr.

Bryan's intimate friends in the East.
Mr. Troup was not chosen as a delegate by the New Haven town convention, but he is expected to sit in the convention on a proxy credential, and, with former Governor Thomas M. Waller of New London will be seen to the convention of the convent ler of New London, will be one of the commanding figures on the floor. The belief is held that the Bryan men will make no fight for resolutions of in-struction to the delegation, preferring to have a harmonious gathering, and so secure several places on the delegation for personal friends of Mr. Bryan.
